The elementary students will "travel" to learning stations and enjoy international foods, games, art and languages.

Mrs. Reinhard

Thank you to Mrs. Schrecke for snacks this week. Next week I will provide a snack because we will be doing SAT tests all morning, so on your snack schedule, Whiston and Kim will be pushed back a week.

Next week is SAT tests. Everyone has learned a lot and we want to do our best, so please make sure your child gets a good nights sleep each night and a good breakfast each morning.

In the afternoons, the elementary students will be doing a theme week activity during which we will feature a different country each day and learn some information, try some food, play some games and do art from that country.

There will be no spelling lists next week due to SAT testing.

Mrs. Hill

Please practice multiplication tables at home.

Please make sure you sleep well next week, eat a good breakfast and have 2 #2 pencils for our testing. We will learn about different countries in the afternoons next week.

We will have no Spelling or memory verse next week.

Mrs. Johnson

Because of testing next week, there will be no spelling, catechisms, or memory verse tests. There will also be no other regular quizzes and test.

To help your child to do his/her best and be ready for testing next week, please make sure they have plenty of rest each night and eat breakfast before coming each morning.

You will need to send 2 #2 pencils for testing. These should be here by Monday morning. If you would like to send a morning snack one of the days it would be appreciated.

Mr. Peterson
