Only four more days left! No one has any homework from me. Have a great weekend!

Mrs. Hillebrenner

I have enjoyed working with your youth through this past few rather chaotic weeks. I am sorry I have not been able to give you more reports on activities but have found it difficult due to my broken arm which must heal without any kind of a cast. I may have been a little grumpy a few times.

On Tuesday the 11th-12th grade will be taking finals in Grammar and Literature.

The 7th, 9th and 10th grades have taken the Literature final and will only have the grammar final on Tuesday. Students 7-10th will be given an opportunity to retake the test if they wish.

I hope you all have a great summer with lots of family time.
